EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation)

Section 4 of the Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road Act 1998 gives the Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment power to appoint competent authorities to perform functions conferred by the Act and by Regulations made under the Act.

Together with the Act, the Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road Regulations 2007 transpose the requirements of the European Union Directives on the carriage of dangerous goods by road and the requirements of the associated 2007 ADR (European Agreement concerning the international carriage of dangerous goods by road). The 1998 Act and the Regulations referred to set out functions to be performed by various competent authorities.

This Order appoints the various competent authorities for the purposes of the 1998 Act and the Regulations referred to above as follows—

Road Safety Authority,
National Standards Authority of Ireland,
Irish National Accreditation Board,
Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform,
Radiological Protection Institute of Ireland,
National Roads Authority, and Health and Safety Authority, to perform the functions assigned to them.

The Order revokes and replaces the Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road Act 1998 (Appointment of Competent Authorities) Order 2006 (S.I. No. 407 of 2006).

The main changes introduced in this Order are—

- (i) the appointment of the Road Safety Authority as the competent authority in respect of the technical examination of vehicles and the issue of certificates of approval for such vehicles under Part 6 of the Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road Regulations 2007, and
- (ii) the appointment of the National Roads Authority, in respect of matters relating to the carriage by road of dangerous goods of the ADR through tunnels listed in Article 3(f) of this Order under Regulation 11(c) of the Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road Regulations 2007.
